If you need assistance in any way, ask any member for help.

Mission

The Brighton Church of Christ is a spiritual family with a focus on going to heaven. We are determined to honor God, to strictly follow the teachings of the New Testament, and effectively make that teaching available to the city of Brighton and the surrounding areas.

Roloids for the Soul Sam Dilbeck

Years ago, Roloids told us how to spell relief. R-O-L-A-I-D-S. Roloids targeted physical discomfort. Sadly, Roloids does nothing for spiritual relief. No number of antacids will bring refreshment for the soul. Spiritual relief is spelled G-O-D.

The soul of every human is clouded with the acids of sin (Rom 5:12) and doomed to eternal death in hell (Rom 6:23). The only hope for man is a spiritual antacid. This relief comes only from God through the blood of His sacrificed Son.

So, how do you spell relief? It starts with repentance. "Repent therefore, and turn back, that your sins may be blotted out" (Acts 3:19). Repentance is a change in heart, life and deed. It requires a separation from wicked ways and an embrace of obedience to God. It is used here by Peter to stand for the entire plan of salvation. Thus, the first step to spelling relief for the soul is repentance.

Next, relief comes from endurance. God wants his children to respect and honor him through dedicated lives. Salvation hinges on one's willingness to endure in the paths of righteousness. "Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him" (Jas 1:12). Through study and application of the Word, one can endure the toughest afflictions.

Spiritual relief is also found in love. Paul encouraged the church to “Let all that you do be done in love” (1 Cor 16:14). Jesus said that the world would distinguish His disciples by their love (John 13:34-35). Relief for sin-sickness resides in love.

Relief comes from one’s involvement in the kingdom. Life after baptism requires living after baptism. “Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure” (Phil 2:12-13). Involvement is a way of life that grows out of one’s love for God and others. It requires sharing the gospel, caring for others, and serving the church. Living Christ brings relief to the soul.

The Christian’s relief is spelled by edifying his brethren. Christians are people too. They get stepped on, put out, drawn in, and thrown down just like everyone else. They are apt to fail. Saints must band together and encourage, uplift, and edify one another. Paul pleaded, “Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted” (Gal 6:1). The faithfulness of the saints to one another relieves the soul.

Finally, spiritual relief is spelled with fighting. One guarantee that is given to the Christian is affliction and warfare. “Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted” (2 Tim 3:12). Timothy had to wage the spiritual warfare (1 Tim. 1:18; 6:12). Fighting against the wiles of the devil is good and right in the sight of God. In fact, it is necessary for the Christian’s survival. The devil is already engaged in the fight for souls (1 Pet. 5:8). The only way for Christian victory is to join the fray and take no prisoners. Relief for the soul is found in fighting against evil.

How does God spell relief? He does it with Repentance, Endurance, Love, Involvement, Edification, and Fighting. To avoid eternal heart burn, take these antacids. That’s how you spell relief.

See Mark Thacker if you are interested in volunteering to work with this effort.
